THE AFTER-LIFE OF ELECTRONICS IN DC

BY MICHELLE H. CRUICKSHANK, ELECTRONICS RECYCLING INTERN, DCEN

DC Environmental Network:

Are you reading this at work right now with your company or organization's device? Or are you reading it with your laptop? Possibly you are on the metro with your tablet or smart phone. Wherever you are, I know you are reading it from some kind of device.

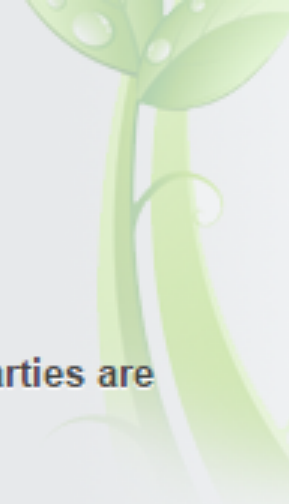

How old is your device? I bought my laptop last Thanksgiving, while Chris was working on a refurbished desktop that he bought three months ago. My husband is three years (as of this month); while my cousin is frantically awaiting her cell phone for a month.
